

Global Hot Spot: The Leo-Aquarius Full Moon on July 23, 2021

Dateline Wednesday July 21, 2021: For those of you who are now enjoying the Astrology Cosmic Kalendar one day at a time – but who have not yet subscribed to be able to look several weeks into the future – here are the calendar entries for two very significant days (Friday July 23 and Saturday July 24). Because every day – beyond the current 24 hours that we define as one rotation of our celestial orb on its axis – has astro-zodiacal magic, mystery and wonder is why thousands of people around the world have been tuning into the Astrological Cosmic Kalendar (www.cosmickalendar.com) for the last 40 years and since it was at the heart-center of our Welcome to Planet Earth pioneering astrology newspaper/magazine during the 1980s and 1990s.

The Leo-Aquarius Full Moon on July 23, 2021 can make an extraordinary impact in your personal life and for all of humanity. You can read more about this powerful solar-lunar polarity in one of the two future calendar entries below as well as tune into the day after, July 24, when Messenger of the Gods Mercury in Cancer trines far-out and imagination-empowering Neptune in Pisces. Please consider the merits of subscribing to the Astrology Cosmic Kalendar to strengthen your already developing skills as a seer who can tune into the future ahead of time.

From the favorable perspective and when looking over the Full Moon chart calculated for Washington, D.C. (presented at the end of this feature), Mercury is nearing a harmonious trine with Neptune in water signs that becomes exact on July 24, and the Moon in Aquarius is within one-half degree of the centaur-body Chariklo (which, like its companion Chiron, is very dynamic in terms of Shaman-Mentor-Guide archetypes and has a 62-year cycle around the zodiac).

In addition and hopefully in a favorable way, Ceres and the far-distant planet Sedna (which was discovered in November 2003 and has an 11,400-year orbit around the Sun) are approaching a rare union in late-Taurus that will occur on July 28. Two other Ceres-Sedna conjunctions in Taurus will occur in January 2022 and I report on this potentially awesome rendezvous of two major celestial bodies in my new podcast #84 (The Astrology of a Rare Asteroid Apocalypse in 2021) in the Mark Lerner Astrology Radio AstroScope section on our website.

It is wise for all Americans to prepare for a surge in discordant vibes due to Neptune near the Rising Degree in the Full Moon chart calculated for our nation's capital (as the shadow side of Neptune can link to mass confusion and chaos) and there are also several tense alignments happening on the day of the Full Moon that you can read about in the Cosmic Kalendar description below for July 23. In addition, please read the following paragraph about the asteroid Juno*.

Important Note about “Dangerous Storms” in the Psychic Atmosphere: If national and international events develop in connection with Juno retrograde in Sagittarius close to the transiting Mean South Node of the Moon (both of which are directly opposite the USA Uranus and square the USA Ceres from July 4, 1776) that warrant greater explanations and analysis, I will provide more information on our website. Juno has many sterling and admirable qualities and archetypes, but when it manifests in a negative manner then rage by the disempowered, terrorist acts as well as atmospheric storms can manifest. We have already witnessed and experienced a blazing record of heat and fires moving through the USA Pacific Northwest and affecting British Columbia, Canada at the end of June and the beginning of July. Juno recently made a station to go retrograde on April 12 and will eventually station to go direct on August 2.

Future Cosmic Kalendar Entries for Friday July 23 and Saturday July 24 (All times are listed in PDT.)

Friday July 23 Providing a good-sized burst of mental clarity and emotional solace in the hours preceding the Full Moon (energizing 2 degrees of Leo and Aquarius at 7:38pm) are the monthly Moon-Mercury polarity from Cancer to Capricorn (12:54am) and a Venus-Jupiter contra-parallel (2:24am) that evokes inspirations from yesterday's Venus-Jupiter opposition in the zodiac. Focus your gaze on research and in-depth studies as

Mercury forms a contra-parallel with Pluto (5:27am) and the monthly Moon-Pluto conjunction clocks in at 9:35am. This potent Moon rendezvous with the ruler of the underworld begins a 7+ hour void lunar twilight zone that lasts until airy Aquarius Moon starts at 5:14pm. Individual and group meditations are advised at the time of the Full Moon. Send out your healing thoughts, affirmations and prayers to humanity and the realms of nature. [Note to readers: All times are calculated for Pacific Daylight Time. Be sure to adjust all times according to your own local time so the alignments noted above will be exact for your location.]

Saturday July 24 With the Moon now making its monthly trek through the airy eleventh sign of the zodiac, this is a great weekend to be a part of group projects, team sports, community events and global causes close to your heart and philosophy of life. Take time to record out-of-the-body journeys and Technicolor dreams that could give you omens about the future as Mercury in Cancer trines Neptune in Pisces (9:36am). Explore your unique gifts in the fine or graphic arts. Be determined to make down-to-earth gains on the professional horizon in sync with the monthly union of the Moon with Saturn in Aquarius (11:26am). Responsibility and discipline are in; playing hooky from hard work is out. Remember that today and Sunday constitute the 48-hour time-period following Friday's powerful Full Moon. Expressing TLC to dear ones is a gift that will be its own reward. [Note to readers: All times are calculated for Pacific Daylight Time. Be sure to adjust all times according to your own local time so the alignments noted above will be exact for your location.]
